INTRODUCTION OF REDESIGNED $100 IN CIRCULATION

Reference is made to the above subject.

The Bank of Zambia wishes to inform you that the Federal Reserve Bank System began issuing a new $100 note from Tuesday, 8 October 2013. The redesigned $100 note incorporates new security features to deter counterfeiters and help businesses and consumers tell whether a note is genuine.

You are further reminded that ALL U.S. currency remains legal tender, regardless of when it was issued.

For more information on the new $100 note, as well as training and educational materials, visit www.newmoney.gov.

Attached is the copy of Press Release from the Federal Reserve Bank of America.
