False Reports on resignation of Governor Mvunga

The Bank of Zambia wishes to dispel reports currently circulating on some social media platforms suggesting that the Bank of Zambia Governor Mr Christopher Mvunga had resigned.

Members of the public are implored to treat these reports as false and unfounded. Such reports mislead the public and if left unchallenged, have the potential to destabilise the financial sector and the economy as a whole. Reports of this nature also have the potential to tarnish the image of the country both locally and internationally.

Members of the public are therefore advised to use social media responsibly and desist from circulating false news.
